NOTES ON TODAY'S WORSHIP

In Isaiah 60, the prophecy of the light is God's mercy returning to Israel, which becomes an act of divine mercy to the whole world. Just as God had summoned the nations to chastise Zion, God has summoned them again to restore the city.

Jesus is the Savior who brings us into new Zion in which God's Spirit has taken up residence on earth in his people. The joy the Magi found at the end of their journey is one of the first effects of the divine illumination now available to everyone.

Whether new or long-time believers, Christ's tangible presence in our lives is a mercy we cannot do without, and we are his tangible presence in the world. Through us, and our loving actions every day, we can be the enduring, tangible presence of Jesus. This week bring the light of Christ to the weary world around you!

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH FAMILY

Jesus, you are the great healer. You know our bodies and our hearts. Bring healing to those who are ill, including Ruthie Kallander, Kay Fauser, Sandy March, and Jim Paxton. Pour your comfort and peace on those whose loved ones have died, including Cindy Breilh after the death of her mother. We know you care deeply for all those who are struggling, and you empathize with their pain. In your name we pray these things, Amen.

MISSION PRAYER

Father in heaven, thank you for making all things new. Thank you for all that you've allowed into our lives this past year—the good along with the hard – reminding us how much we need you and need to rely on you daily. We pray for your Spirit to lead us each step, for your Kingdom come and your will be done both here and throughout the world. Protect the vulnerable and weak of this world and may we, your Church, reflect your love to all the nations. To you be the glory and honor in this New Year and forever.

Mission Call Out:
