NOTES ON TODAY'S WORSHIP

In 2016, I met with Dan Forrest about a possible commission for BelPres when he spoke of the plans for Jubilate Deo (and shared his very busy schedule excluding a commission soon). I expressed my enthusiasm for the work and how it reflected the path God has put BelPres on: to revive our corner of the world with His love, truth, justice, and mercy. (Please take a moment to read Dan's comments on Jubilate Deo in today's insert.)

This work gives us a foretaste of the world united in one song, God's song, the song that resounds 24-7 in the halls of the Holy One, one song sung by many tribes and in many tongues!

May today inspire you to remember it is through worship and the church the "song" goes on, but, also, is up to each of us to sing it wherever we work, play, learn or live. It has been my honor and great blessing to endeavor to do that with you over these past thirty years as the Director of Music and Worship at BelPres.

Scott Dean

PRAYER FOR THE CHURCH FAMILY

Sovereign God, you know our deepest needs, both spoken and unspoken. We lift up our loved ones to you who are suffering from illness or pain, especially, Larry Bain, Hal Fell, and Jeanette Ragsdale. We pray your comforting presence would be near those grieving the loss of loved ones, especially Cheryl Ford (father), and Linda Grover (brother-in-law).

Grief Recovery, Sun, Jun 23, 12:15pm, S-205
(for those grieving the death of a loved one).

MISSION PRAYER

Gracious God, by the resurrection of your beloved Son, Jesus our Lord, you have turned sadness into joy, doubt into faith, anxiety into peace, darkness into light, and despair into hope. We pray for neighbors in Palestine and Israel, working unceasingly for justice and peace, who feel defeated by hopelessness and cannot see beyond the mounting injustice and oppression. Grant them fortitude to not only endure but to persist in pursuing a just peace.

Mission Next Steps:

Come to the next Global Missions Talk, July 28 at 12:15pm in S-140 to hear from the Thomsons, missionaries serving and raising their family in Japan for over 20 years, share how God is able to use their family to spread the gospel and build Christian community there.
